

ČERVENÝ JELEN

Červený Jelen (Red Stag)

Location

It used to be a baroque palace with a beautiful garden, an oasis in the center of Prague, full of life. Then the oasis was locked in the vault of the Anglo-Czechoslovak Bank and other banks, offices, department stores grew up in the area ... people began to walk faster, cars and mobile phones emerged ...

Sense of togetherness, a relaxed way of enjoying life, amazing nutritious food, perfect beer and hospitality are suddenly a modern luxury.

Červený Jelen (Red Stag) is a symbol of the return of a relaxed life to the center of Prague.

Don't rush. Enjoy your time and enjoy the daily luxuries of togetherness, innovative food, Pilsner beer and hospitality.

Červený Jelen

Unique space and timeless design

The space was timelessly reconstructed through number of cubist elements following the architecture of the original house, the Špork Palace, and also the main protagonist of the Cubist style, architect Josef Gočár.

