

TRAVEL TO SORRENTO

To reach Sorrento (Italy) from abroad, your journey will consist of two main stages:

- flying into a major Italian international airport - Naples or Rome; and
- transfer to Sorrento.

The information provided below is intended as a general guide to assist you in planning your trip. You are kindly advised to verify the latest information and make travel arrangements according to your individual needs and requirements.

BY AIRPLANE TO NAPLES

Sorrento is best reached via Naples International Airport (NAP / Capodichino), about 55 km from Sorrento. For international delegates, flying directly to Naples via one of the major European hubs can help minimise connections.

Naples International Airport (NAP / Capodichino) offers direct connections from several major European hubs, including: Frankfurt, London, Amsterdam, Munich, Madrid, Paris, Istanbul.

Tips for international travellers:

- When booking your flight, check connections to Naples (NAP) first. This may allow you to avoid additional connections through Rome or other Italian airports.
- If flights to Naples are limited, please consider Rome Fiumicino Airport (FCO / Leonardo DaVinci).

  From Rome Airport you can take a taxi or a 32' minutes train ride (Leonardo Express) to the Rome main train station Roma Termini, and from there a high-speed train (Frecciarossa) to Napoli Centrale (approx.1,5 hours). To book the high-speed train please visit Trenitalia or ItaloTreno.

If you are travelling with Lufthansa Group airlines (Lufthansa, SWISS, Austrian, Brussels Airlines, Edelweiss, Discover) or transatlantic flights operated by Air Canada and United, you may benefit from discounted rates by making your booking via the link 45th ECTA Annual Conference 2027 | Lufthansa.

Rates are valid for flights up to one week before and one week after the event.

VISA

Italy is part of the Schengen Area. Depending on your nationality, you may or may not require a visa to enter Italy for a short stay.

- EU/EEA and Swiss citizens do not require a visa and may enter Italy with a valid passport or national ID card.
- Citizens of many non-EU countries, including the United Kingdom, United States, Canada, Australia and Japan, can enter Italy without a visa for stays of up to 90 days within a 180-day period.
- Delegates who require a visa should apply for a Schengen short-stay visa (Type C) through the Italian Embassy or Consulate responsible for their place of residence.

Visa applications can generally be submitted up to six months before the planned journey. Delegates are strongly advised to apply well in advance of the congress, taking into account appointment availability and processing times.

As visa requirements may vary depending on nationality and individual circumstances, we recommend checking the latest information and confirming whether a visa is required before making travel arrangements.

For further information and to check your specific visa requirements, please visit the official Visa for Italy portal.

Please note:

- ETIAS, the European Travel Information and Authorisation System, is expected to become operational before the conference and may be required for visa-exempt travellers from certain non-EU countries. Delegates are advised to check the latest requirements before travelling. https://travel-europe.europa.eu/
- ECTA and the conference organisers are not responsible for Visa applications that are denied or Visas not received in time. The usual cancellation policy applies in these cases.
